

Fathers & Sons Retreat

Bali/Ubud 8 - 12 July 2013
'From Boys to Young Men'

Nic Morrey, a child and family psychologist from Melbourne Australia, has developed an exceptional boy's education initiative called 'From Boys to Young Men'. This unique Bali holiday program is suited for adventurous fathers and their boys (11-14 years old) who wish to grow in themselves and develop stronger bonds with each other. It is an opportunity for boys and men to share stories without fear of judgement or competition, with respect and confidentiality.

"There are not many rites of passage for boys growing up in Western society, apart from perhaps getting a license and drinking alcohol legally at 18. In my private practice, dads are crying out for a depth of connection with their sons which are being disrupted due to a father's heavy work load in combination with a technology saturated world. There is an absence of guidance into adulthood for young people and this holiday program will support fathers in their necessary role using adventure, fun, the powerful tool of rites of passage and initiation to guide boys toward manhood."

Why Bali/Ubud?

Ubud offers a sanctuary, a place where culture connects intimately with its land and spirituality. There is so much for us to learn about mental health from this alone. The retreat includes immersing ourselves within Balinese culture, including a Balinese cleansing and coming of age ceremony for our boys using ritual masks. Kadek Gunarta (co-founder of Bali spirit festival) and Ketut Arsana (most renowned Ubud healer) will also play a part in the 5 day program, offering their unique contributions & culturally rich insights including teaching Gamelan and Kecak.

Who is the program for?

The program is open to fathers/stepfathers/guardians and their boys 11 to 14 years of age. If travelling to Bali as a family, note that the Mother/Daughter retreat will be held next door to the Father/Son retreat venue and it is possible to spend free time together. Timetable includes teaming up with the Mother/Daughter program which runs from 7-11th July 2013 for the coming of age ceremony.

Facilitators

Nic Morrey

is a Psychologist (BSS Hons; MPsych Child & Family; M.A.P.S.), Yoga & Zen Practitioner with over 16 years experience in the Community Health sector, 7 of those years facilitating a men's shed. He now works in private practice with children and families in Melbourne. Nic has been travelling to Bali for a number of years and is the founder of this program, developed due to a gap within Australian cultural values. His model is strongly influenced by the works of Steve Biddulph (Raising Boys), Arne Rubinstein (Pathways to Manhood) and Andrew Lines (The Rite Journey). Nic is also the National Convener for the Australian Psychological Society's Transpersonal Psychology Interest Group.

Andy Hamilton

is a Psychologist (BA Hons; Assoc M.A.P.S.) with a long history of working with both adults and young people in the community sector. In recent years he has been running a 'Bush Adventure Therapy' program for adolescents - wilderness experiences with a strong initiatory element. He is comfortable in Bali, having been a regular visitor there and will co-facilitate the adventurous components of the retreat.

James Daley

is an accomplished Mime artist & facilitator who has performed all over the world. His inspiration comes from nature and indigenous cultures, using masks as a tool to hold a space of ritual, honouring the connection with each other, the earth and ourselves. He has found an avenue for his powerful unique style of teaching within schools, indigenous communities, special needs schools, detention centres and many youth programs. James' training began in England and has continued in Australia including Mentoring with Youth, Cert in Mental Health, Yoga, Steiner Teacher Training, Zen Shiatsu, Clowning, Improvisation, Acting & Bachelor of Education.

What is a Rite of Passage?

Rites of passage and initiation into adulthood through ceremony and the passing on of wisdom from men to boys has always been a fundamental part of indigenous and tribal cultures but is generally lacking in the West.

The term 'rites of passage' is about passing on core values, beliefs, and skills and involves training, guidance, preparation, challenge, ceremony and celebration presented by same sex 'elders'. There is a life challenge at this developmental age (11-14 years) and participants will explore this together. This challenge is an opportunity to set the stage for creating a healthy man. The term 'Initiation' refers to solidifying a new identity, helping boys figure out how to function and fit into the community as respectful and responsible young men. The simple but powerful initiations used in this program evoke a sense of awe and create lasting images long remembered and treasured.

Why with us?

The program is created through the 'hero's journey' educational framework which uses 7 steps (Calling, Departure, Following, Challenges, Abyss, Return and Home-coming) to provide a symbol rich and powerful process to help acknowledge the sons journey into beginning manhood. This program meets the developmental needs of growing boys and supports the necessary guidance of fathers and male mentors to help them gain an understanding of their relationship with themselves, others, spirit and the world. There is a focus on the pressing concerns of safety, dealing with emotions, values, responsibility, and self awareness. Boys need the strong presence of fathers now, before adolescence, and this program cements a father's role and facilitates a son's journey into becoming a young man.
