

Personality Matrix

This will allow you to identify your own and your partners "Kosmic Address" in the matrix below, along with future growth potentials. If you are at similar levels of consciousness, spiritual, sexual and anima/animus complex development, and share values, passions, lifestyle choices, and a vision for your relationship, then you can agree to heal, learn and grow together to make a contribution that is larger than either individual. This will keep your relationship alive, rewarding and passionate. Otherwise you can decide to end your relationship with understanding, love and compassion to allow you and your partner to find a more compatible mate, instead of keeping you both hostage in a relationship that does not evolve and serves no one.
